Slide Collection Current

Fresh forms for flexibility

Slide Collection
Current Occasional Tables
 Designed by David MocarSKI

Current occasional tables are lightweight and movable, yet stable and durable, as they need to be for Slide Collection environments for the way we work now. Coffee and side tables have clean silhouettes, and a pull-up table snugs up to seating for a handy computer, note-taking, or coffee cup surface.

Current side tables have a clean silhouette and surface options

The pull-up table is a highly versatile addition to casual meeting areas

The bent-wood surface of the pull-up table provides balance areas

Specifications

Current Occasional Tables have a durable three-quarter-inch-thick solid wood edged top, Glacier White solid surface, or .5" thick painted tempered glass with a reverse bevel edge. The base is stainless steel, featuring nylon glides.

Options:

- Top: .75" thick wood, Glacier White solid surface, or .5" thick painted tempered glass; reverse bevel edge
- Wood: Maple is standard; Walnut and Option A Exotic Woods are also available
- Finishes: Standard and custom finishes
- Base: Polished or Satin Stainless Steel; Statuary Bronze is also available
- Glides: Felt pads are an additional option for the standard nylon glides
