Clean lines, bold shapes for wide appeal

Deauville Table
Designers Speak Collection
 Designed by Yohandel Ruiz of RTKL

Much like the Miami resort with which they share a name, Deauville tables are equally at ease in interiors that appeal to a Rat Pack sensibility or those that embrace the ultra modern. Bracket-shaped legs are an immediate focal point. Their primacy allows the top—executed in fine wood or with stone insert—to appear as though it floats. Clean lines, bold shapes, and pure materials combine for a timeless look that spans transitional to modern tastes.

Visually dominant legs give the appearance of floating

Tops can accommodate inserts in select marble, granite, and limestone

Clean lines and bold shapes allow flexibility for use in many interiors
