Christina

A foundational form reinterpreted

Christina Tables
Designed by Norman Diekman

The oval—an elemental form—receives an imaginative interpretation in the design of Christina tables. In addition to basic ovals, the line includes interlocking shapes created by notching a vertical offset on a slight angle. The result suggests a spiral while remaining true to the oval form. This versatility along with the range of heights and sizes offers many possibilities for interesting groupings.

Specifications

Side and coffee tables are available in maple and ash veneers. Also available with Option A Exotic Woods. Different heights and shapes with tapers and reverse offsets invite fitting the tables together in interesting groupings. Catalyzed lacquer finish in all Cumberland finishes. An optional 1.25" Stone top or 0.5" solid surface top is also available.

Offset

The offset on these tables allows two of them to be nestled together and to touch at the top of the offset. All of the tables with offsets nestle with themselves and with all the other tables; the only exception are the 3457 and 3458. When they nestle with themselves, they have a gap between the offsets at the top. The reverse-tapered 3460 and 3461 tables were specifically created by the designer to work together with the 3457 and 3458 tables.
