Hadley

Comfort that is naturally inviting

Cumberland Handwork Collection
Hadley Seating
 Designed by Jeffrey Botwin of Herringbone Design

It's natural that Hadley seating evokes the open comfort and relaxed simplicity of a flower-filled field—Hadley, a word of Old English origin, means “heather meadow.” Sides and back gently fan outward as if opening to the sky. Buttons, subtly tufted, allude to blooms dotting the countryside. As beautiful and varied as heather flowers, Hadley seating — lounge chair and 2- and 3-seat sofa — can be upholstered in an extensive selection of fabrics and leathers.
